FALL SEMESTER 2019

August 26 - December 6

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN

The curriculum of Tri-State Bible College is designed to prepare students with biblical and theological skills. Prominent in the undergraduate curriculum are theology courses, surveys of the Old Testament and New Testament, and biblical language studies. Pell grants, Federal student loans, state funds, and various other financial aid programs, including institutional scholarships, may be available for qualifying undergraduate students.

Federal unsubsidized student loans and institutional scholarships may be available for qualifying graduate students.

TSBC is a VA friendly college that encourages our men and women of the Armed Forces to consider furthering their education.
